

Camas Educational Foundation

giving and growing. together.

Subject: 2008 Festival of Trees November 28-30

The Camas Educational Foundation (CEF) is one of 17 Southwest Washington non-profits to benefit this year from the Vancouver Rotary Foundation's Festival of Trees, to be held at the Vancouver Downtown Hilton November 28-30. This is a great holiday family outing (children under 6 admitted free):

- Friday, November 28, 9am-6pm
- Saturday, November 29, 9am-3:30pm
- Sunday, November 30, 10am-4pm

Adults $5, Seniors $4, Children 7-12 $3,

6 and under Free

NEW Family Ticket!

2 adults, 2 children: $13

For the children: See and hear local entertainers, from pianists to children's choirs to dance groups...see what Santa has hidden under the trees....and don't forget to stop by the Talking Tree on the way in and out -- you never know what it is going to say!

For the adults: Don't forget to go next door to the Festival of Gifts so you can shop for gorgeous holiday presents, and the kids will definitely want to make time to visit Santa.

And be sure to stop by and "vote" for the CEF Tree, themed: "Camas Educational Foundation: Giving and Growing. Together", beautifully decorated by Amy Rose and Carrie Schulstad of the Uncommon Gift in downtown Camas. A "vote" is a $1 donation put into the donation box in front of the tree. The nonprofit tree with the most votes will receive 50% of all funds raised through the voting process. The remaining 50% will be distributed equally among the remaining nonprofit participants.
