Z- Notes from the Library ~ Ruth Woodruff, Librarian

Thank you for reading at home for 20 minutes or more. We have lots of snowflakes falling onto the bulletin board. It's exciting to see how many of our students do read at home. Reading at home is really an important part of literacy.

The Camas School District was picked by Living Voices for three days of a presentation dealing with the Japanese Internment Camps. This is a great way for our 4th and 5th grade students to learn about an event in history by almost stepping back in time.

We are getting ready to host author Heather Vogel Fredrickson. She will be presenting at our school on March 9. We planned to have her during the time the PTA is holding their Read-A-Thon. Some of the classes are listening to her stories in preparation.

The PTA is kicking off their Read-A-Thon with a Scholastic Book Fair starting February 24 during the JDZ Showcase Night. They will be holding this book fair in the library. Please make sure you come in and browse.

Come check out our library! You are welcome to come in and read or color with your child in the morning before school starts. Yes, bring your coffee!
