The Hall Of Fame Selection Committee shall be responsible for the selection of inductees for membership in the Camas Sports Hall of Fame. Such inductees should/can include individual athletes, teams, Coaches, Scholar Athlete and Hall of Honor candidate.

Criteria for Eligibility of Candidates

INDUCTEES FOR THE 2014 HALL OF FAME SHOULD HAVE GRADUATED IN 2006 OR BEFORE.

Categories. Individual athletes, teams, coaches, scholar athletes, and Hall of Honor candidates are eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame. Scholar athletes are students who in addition to achieving athletic success, also excelled academically, and served in positions of leadership or made noteworthy community service contributions while in school. Hall of Honor candidates are community members who have rendered services that benefit the athletic programs in the Camas School District.

Qualifications. Candidates should have achieved exceptional athletic success in the Camas School District athletic program. The candidate's athletic achievements and contributions to sports should have been recognized in the Camas Community, and should enhance the reputation of the Camas Community as well as themselves. Candidates must be of good character.

Eligibility. No individual shall be eligible for induction until ten years after the individual has graduated from high school. No team shall be eligible for induction until ten years after the team has completed its season. Coach candidates must be retired from coaching the sport in which he or she is being nominated. The Committee shall have the authority in the case of extenuating circumstances to waive the ten year waiting period.
